ELA 20-1 STEM: The deadline to register for 20-1 STEM English is fast approaching! Get your forms into the office TODAY!

Library: The library will be closed during the lunch break 21, 22, 23 May to hand out grad gowns. Grads are to enter the library by the side doors.

Congratulations to all Artists who participated in this weekend's Art Show and Competition between all County High Schools. A special shout out to the following Artists:

Natasha Skorobohach for winning BEST OVERALL DRAWING and SECOND PACE in the GRADE 12 CATEGORY. Jackie Hagstrom for winning BEST OVERALL PAINTING. Rose Jackson for winning BEST OVERALL PHOTOGRAPH!!

All artists who did participate can pick up their artwork later this week from the Art room.

Artist of the Week: Congratulations to Jackie Hagstrom (Art 30) on her amazing abstract portrait painting! Check out this award winning (BEST PAINTING) composition in the front display case

Bring It On Come out to celebrate the Senior & Junior Musical Theatre class perform Bring it On. This is a visual, athletic and musical spectacle; a high-flying journey that focuses on the competitive world of cheerleading and over-the-top team rivalries. Within the story, we discover the true complexities of friendship, jealousy, betrayal and forgiveness. May 21, 22 & 23rd @ 7:00 PM at Festival Place. Tickets are $20.00

BOOK CLUB: The first book for Facey's Book Club is titled DRY. Stop in the library and pick up a copy of this amazing dystopian thriller and then join us June 3rd to chat about this engaging book. Happy reading!

Facey Spectrum: Weekly meeting Thursday at lunch in room 136. New members always welcome.
