General: Today is Day 35 of 43 in Quarter 4

In June, we commemorate National Indigenous History Month to recognize the history, heritage and diversity of First Nations, Inuit and Metis peoples in Canada.

In recognition, we will leave the shoe display to memorialize the 215 indigenous students found in unmarked graves at the Kamloops former IRS. Feel free to continue to add to the display.

June is Pride AND Indigenous History Month! Watch Shawnee Kish explain how we celebrate each other's diversity... Video: Shawnee Kish on Global (4:58)
