General Announcements

Ramadan - The Bev Facey community and CARE wants to acknowledge our students practicing the Islamic month of Ramadan. Today marks the first day of the holy month of Ramadan (March 22 - April 20). This month holds a lot of value, as the holy book of Islam was revealed during this month.

Muslims all around the world practice fasting from sunrise to sunset each day for 30 consecutive days. Treating others with kindness and respect, and refraining from indulgence is all part of cleansing one's spirit. Using the hands, eyes and mouth with pure intentions is also essential in the month of Ramadan.

If you need a space for prayer, room 295 will be available to use.

Artist of the Week- Congratulations to Lauren Undheim (Art 30) on an amazing portrait of the famous author Stephen King. Students were challenged with using the medium of conte to create all of their light and dark values while pushing a photorealistic quality into their portrait. Check out this amazing portrait in the front display case!
