Principal's Message

Principal's Message

Welcome parents, family, friends, and our excited audience! On behalf of Bev Facey Community school, I want to thank each of you for attending what will be an amazing performance and for supporting our hard-working ultra-talented cast of students. They have shown passion, commitment, and loyalty to one another all through the journey of preparing for this production. In doing so they truly have represented the very best of what it means to be a Bev Facey Falcon. It has been my pleasure over the last few months to see firsthand the intense work and awesome results that our students have been able to achieve, and now tonight they will get to share that with all of you on the stage!

Principal's Message

It has been truly inspiring to see our cast rally around each other and along with the excellent guidance of our drama and musical theatre staff they have created an optimal environment for each of them to take risks and excel in their individual and group performances. Each of our students have worked long hours and have all taken turns at leading one another to continually raise the bar in this production. The entire cast's commitment and passion is a testament to the fantastic artistic learning environment that we support and benefit from within the Bev Facey community.

Tonight's presentation by our musical theatre and drama students of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat features a large cast of singers, dancers and professional musicians, as well as a children's choir. The story of Joseph is heart-warming and entertaining, full of familiar and delightful songs – a true musical classic. ## Director's Notes

Director's Notes

It is safe to say that of all the composers who have written musicals in the last 40 years, none has stood taller than Sir Andrew Lloyd Webber. Along with numerous collaborators who helped write his book and lyrics, most notably Sir Tim Rice, he has had a huge number of hits with musicals such as Jesus Christ Superstar, Cats, Phantom of the Opera, Evita, Sunset Boulevard, Starlight Express, and of course the show you are about to see tonight, Joseph and The Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat. Joseph was one of his earliest works that built on the popularity of JCS, and solidified Lloyd Webber's reputation as an up and comer, with Cats and Phantom cementing it.

Director's Notes

Andrew Lloyd Webber was born in 1948 in Kensington, London, the eldest son of William Lloyd Webber, a composer and organist of great note, and Jean Hermione, a violinist and pianist. His younger brother, Julian Lloyd Webber, is a renowned solo cellist. Andrew started writing his own music at a young age, including a suite of six pieces at the age of nine, and he has stated that he had set the music to (Old Possum's Book of Practical) Cats by the age of fifteen. He put on productions with Julian and his Aunt Viola in his toy theatre (which he built at Viola's suggestion). His aunt, a professional actress, took him to see many of her shows in the West End, and through the stage door allowed him into the world of the theatre. Later, he would become the owner of a number of West End theatres. Lloyd Webber was a Queen's Scholar at Westminster School and studied history at Oxford, although he abandoned the course to study at the Royal College of Music and pursue his interest in musical theatre.

The story of Joseph's origins is fairly simple – Lloyd Webber wrote it as a 20-year old fledgling composer with a famous musician father who encouraged him, on a commission from a local school. It began as a 15-minute work, and as the years progressed it was continuously expanded and refined, until it became the full length show you see today. The show has had a huge number of professional stagings, numerous tours, and a straight-to-video movie starring Donny Osmond, who revived his teeny bopper/ TV variety show career with his portrayal of Joseph. From there, Lloyd Webber's rise to stardom was steady, and his collaborations with lyricists like Tim Rice, Alan Ayckbourn, Charles Hart and Christopher Hampton, and collaborations with great directors like Trevor Nunn and producers like Cameron Macintosh ensured his success.

Sir Andrew has won numerous awards over the years, including a knighthood in 1992, followed by a peerage from the British Government for services to Music, seven Tony Awards, three Grammy Awards, an Academy Award, fourteen Ivor Novello Awards, seven Olivier Awards, a Golden Globe Award, and the Kennedy Center Honors in 2006. He has become one of the 100 richest men in Great Britain. He has had shows of his run for decades in both London and New York. Phantom ran for close to 14,000 performances over 35 years, and Cats ran for close to 7,500 in its 21-year run. Phantom has earned over $1.3 billion (US $) to date! Joseph has become one of the most popular musicals in the world, with close to 25,000 different productions being staged since its inception. Lloyd Webber's career in musical theatre is the very definition of success.

Sir Tim Rice is a British born author and lyricist who was born in 1944, and began working as an articling lawyer until he jumped into the recording business, where he met Andrew Lloyd Webber. The two have collaborated on 6 different theatrical projects. Rice has also worked with Elton John on The Lion King and Aida, with Allan Menken on Beauty and the Beast and Aladdin, and with ABBA on Chess, as well as numerous other highly successful projects in film, TV and onstage. He has won Oscars, Tonys, Grammys, Golden Globes, Drama Desk awards, and was knighted in 1994 by Queen Elizabeth. He has been inducted into the Songwriter Hall of Fame, and has been named a Disney Legend.

And so, it is with great pleasure that we end our Bevfacey 2022-23 Theatre season with this family-friendly musical. We have a great group of talented and hard working actors and tech crew, a very supportive administration, and a group of dedicated teachers and theatre professionals who are working to make the experience of theatre come alive for our students, and for you, our audience. We sincerely thank you for your support of our wonderful program.

Enjoy the show!

Special Thanks

Special Thanks

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat was made successful through the effort and dedication of many people. We are particularly grateful to the cast, crew and their families for making a commitment to our program and sticking with it. We are also grateful to the Bev Facey Administration for their continuing support of the performing arts.

Our shows couldn't run without technical assistance and we have some of the best help around! Special thanks to the best technical theatre class ever and the tech guru himself, Mr. Gerry Enns for making the show's vision come to life with an amazing set! And we could not have managed to set up our set – and solve the myriad of challenges that go into making everything work – without the assistance of the staff at Festival Place.

Special Thanks

We would like to thank our musicians, led by Elaine Dunbar, and the Nottingham Children's Choir and their director, Amy Appleton for backing us in this production. This is a musical, after all, and we have the best! Thanks also to Cindy Smith for helping our young singers and to Kate Beazer for working as choir liaison for Bev Facey.

Costuming is always a challenge, and we are grateful to Cindy Smith for costume design and to Colleen Adamic, Laura Dahl, Tamera Ellis-Dye and Shelley Thomsen for assisting her in fitting and adjusting our fantastic costumes. Bravo!

Leaning on people with organizational and computer skills makes part of our job quite easy. Thanks go to Art Packer at Newton Graphics for his work in designing and publishing our programs and posters for the entire season and to Kim Seibt for her tech wizardry with programs and basically everything! Also thanks to Kirk and Trudy Harrold at Focalpoint Photography for the outstanding work they do photographing our students and videotaping our shows. And a massive thank you to Salisbury Drama department for all their help with costumes, props and set pieces!

Thank you to all of our sponsors for supporting the Arts and all our wonderful volunteers who support us every day! And on a personal note, the Facey Fine Arts Team would like to thank their families for their support – and for putting up with all the craziness.

Finally, to our audience, and in particular to the parents of our young thespians, your support and appreciation of the performing arts keeps all of us going and we are grateful for both. It's been an incredible season, and we are so grateful to once again be performing in person in front of a live audience. We hope to see everyone back next fall for more amazing shows!
